RUSS MONK SLAIN

Report Says "Ruler of the Czar" Was Assassinated.

Plot to Kill Rasputin Told of in Norway.

New York, May 12.—The report received yesterday by wireless from Berlin through the Overseas News agency that Gregory Rasputin, the Russian monk who is reputed to have wielded a powerful mystic influence over Emperor Nicholas, had been assassinated is coincident with the receipt here by the Associated Press of mail advices from its correspondent at Christiania, Norway, disclosing details of a plot to murder Rasputin.

They were revealed by Heidebrand, the "Mad Monk of Tsaritsyn," a fantastic leader of the masses of the Volga region who has figured prominently in the Rasputin case. It is disclosed that Heidebrand, who is reported to have fled from Russia some time ago, is a refugee in Christiania. Although once on the best of terms with Rasputin, he finally turned against him and denounced him as wielding a criminal influence and undertook to warn the imperial court of this dangerous fiend.

HAYDEN GIVES ADVICE

Tells Retail Clerks to Move Carefully on Sunday Closing.

Retail clerks in Topeka are seeking the advice of City Attorney Hayden in their efforts to obtain better working hours. A representative of the retail clerks' union called on Hayden today and asked him to render a decision whether or not the union can close all grocery stores in Topeka on Sundays. There is some difference between the state and city laws which cover this question and as both laws give the grocer a wide latitude on the question of Sunday closing, the city attorney advised the representative to proceed cautiously in any endeavor for better hours.

A complaint was filed with the city attorney that some of the clothing stores are keeping open on Sunday and Hayden instructed the representative to obtain the names of all those who were found to be open next Sunday and all would receive a letter telling them that they were violating the law and to discontinue the practice at once.

"I would suggest," said Hayden, "that the clerks' union and the grocersmen first get together and talk their differences over to see if some sort of an arrangement for better hours for the clerks cannot be obtained. If that fails then it is time to proceed."

RED CROSS—GOODNESS YES.

Red Cross Ball Blue, yes. Nothing else will do. Red Cross Ball Blue makes my clothes a beautiful clear white, not the dingy yellow green tinge of liquid blue. Red Cross Ball Blue for me. Yes sir-ee, Bobb-Ad.

proceed on other lines, but if you once start a tight Sunday closing movement, it naturally extends to other lines and you boys are liable to become engulfed in a movement that will frustrate your present plans, and for that reason I would strongly advise going slowly."

FAVOR THE UNIONS

M. E. Conference May Advocate Use of Organized Labor.

Change in Apostles Creed Is Left With Bishops.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 12.—Action on a proposal designed to commit the Methodist Episcopal church to a policy favoring preferential employment of union labor was deferred until tomorrow after two hours of debate at today's business session of the general conference. The question came up on consideration of the report of Methodist commission on social service which contained the following recommendation:

"A sound principle to govern the church as an employer would seem to be that in recognition of the price paid by organized labor to improve conditions of the industry and on account of its general contribution to the community welfare, a preference should be shown to it and every possible effort be made to work with it, insofar as its methods are just and insofar as the rights of unorganized men are not infringed upon."

A proposal to amend the Apostles' creed by substituting the words "Church universal" for "Holy Catholic church" caused a debate in which proponents of the change asserted that the meaning of the phrase was misunderstood by young persons and by foreign converts to Methodism. The determination of the matter was left to the board of bishops.

LAW IS LAX ON WOMEN

Burnett Woman, If Guilty, Is Liable to No More Than Jail Sentence.

Albert Stark, the fourteen-year-old boy to whose delinquency May Burnett is charged with contributing, was called before the sheriff's force this morning and questioned. He made the same sort of statements with reference to his relations with the Burnett woman that he had already made to Harvey Parsons, chief of police, and to F. W. Dawdy, probation officer.

May Burnett declared today that there is absolutely nothing to the charges.

"I run a decent and respectable place," she said, "and have been trying to do what I thought was right. The police have done all they could to make trouble for me no matter how I have conducted myself."

The Stark boy is small for a boy of fourteen years. He declared today that he had been sent out to steal by Mrs. Burnett and that she had taught him other things which the officials agreed no fourteen-year-old boy ought to know anything about. He told of other small boys who had been in her company.

The specific charge against May Burnett is that she contributed to the delinquency of Albert Stark. If she is convicted of the worst charge he makes against her she can draw nothing more than a jail sentence. The county attorney's office looked up the law this morning.
